

For our class, you will need the course textbook, but not an account for WileyPlus (though it is auto-bundled into our promo for the ebook). I'll try to outline your options here for the various ways you could go about getting the text if you don't already have it. If I personally didn't have the book yet and needed to get one, I'd just go with the last option listed.

1. You already purchased the text and WileyPlus last semester. (No additional cost)

- (a) Go to the website: <https://www.wileyplus.com/Section/id-410195.html>
- (b) Type in the course number for our class: 746103
- (c) Login to your existing account using your email address and password from last semester

2. You want to purchase a new copy of the entire ebook alone (no paper copy) ($72)

- (a) Go to the website: <https://www.wileyplus.com/Section/id-410195.html>
- (b) Type in the course number for our class: 746103
- (c) Select "Create Account"
- (d) After accepting the License Agreement, add to your cart "WileyPLUS Instant Access only" (which is listed at $120). While checking out, include the following PROMO code: WMU05. This promotion reduces your cost to $72. You will not see the reduced price immediately, but only after you have entered in your payment information (but before you confirm the purchase).

3. You want to purchase a new copy of the entire ebook + a binder that contains a print version of the text ($113)

- (a) Go to Willamette's Direct-To-Student Website: <https://www.wiley.com/WileyCDA/Section/id-830944.html>
- (b) Push the "Add to cart" button below the option: Buy the book with a WileyPLUS Reg Code
- (c) Make your purchase. When the text arrives, it will include a WileyPlus registration card.
- (d) You can use the card following the above instructions to get your ebook version.

4. You are unsure if you are going to stay in the class You can use the ebook option and get a 14-day grace period in which you'd have access to the ebook without charge. If you decide to stay you can easily pay to convert to a normal registration.

5. You are happy with a used copy of just what we are covering this semester (\approx $30)

- Look for used copies of Volume II of the 4th edition of Matter and Interactions. You don't need WileyPlus for our section, so you don't need to worry about it.
- Amazon has used binder copies listed for around $20 atm here.
